CHRISTMAS LIGHTS AND HOLIDAY DELIGHTS

The dark evenings of December in Paris sparkle with the spirit of Christmas festivities, as the city's iconic landmarks shimmer with dazzling displays, transforming the streets and main squares into a winter wonderland.

Alsace, nestled in northeastern France, enchants with its storybook villages adorned with twinkling lights and half-timbered houses. The Christmas markets in Alsace, steeped in tradition and community spirit, come alive with the scent of mulled wine and gingerbread, creating a truly enchanting atmosphere.

Explore from well-located boutique hotels in Paris and Strasbourg, and enjoy superlative French service aboard your intimate canal barge.

Savor Parisian flavors and Alsatian holiday traditional treats and plenty of vin chaud - mulled wine - to keep warm as you stroll the wintry, cobblestone streets.

HIGHLIGHTS

DETAILED ITINERARY

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5

Independent Departures from the USA

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6 PARIS

Independent Arrivals in Paris. Note: Hotel check-in is available from 3:00 p.m.

5:30 p.m. Meet your Conservancy Travel Trip Leader for a welcome and orientation meeting, then walk to a nearby restaurant for a traditional French dinner including limited choice of appetizer, entrée and dessert; a glass of wine, water and a choice of tea or coffee. Les Jardins du Marais Meals: D

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7 PARIS

After breakfast, depart the hotel on foot and take the Paris Métro (subway) to the Île de la Cité to visit the newly reconstructed Notre Dame Cathedral. Construction on the cathedral began in 1163 and was not finally completed until 1345. Damaged and restored several times, it remains one of the largest and finest examples of Gothic architecture anywhere. Continue to La Sainte Chapelle, begun in 1239, the stained-glass windows and soaring pinnacle spires are one of the glories of Gothic architecture.

We'll have lunch in a local restaurant.

In the afternoon, we depart Paris by private motorcoach for a special visit of Chateau Vaux-le-Vicomte, decorated for the holidays with candlelight, tables laden with gourmet delicacies and twinkling Christmas decorations. The Château is a stunning 17th-century French baroque masterpiece, renowned for its harmonious architecture, lavish interiors, and meticulously designed gardens by André Le Nôtre. It was commissioned by Nicolas Fouquet, Louis XIV's finance minister. Returning to Paris, we'll have a panoramic drive through the city. Dinner on own. Les Jardins du Marais Meals: B, L

MONDAY, DECEMBER 8 PARIS – STRASBOURG

After breakfast, we depart by motorcoach to the Jacquemart-André Museum, where you'll explore its exquisite art collection at your own pace using audioguides. The Jacquemart-André Museum is a stunning 19th-century mansion that was the private residence of art collectors Édouard André and Nélie Jacquemart, showcasing an exceptional collection of European masterpieces, including works by Rembrandt, Botticelli, Fragonard, and Donatello. The mansion itself is a masterpiece, with opulent interiors designed to harmoniously display the couple's acquisitions.

Next, we ascend the Eiffel Tower and enjoy a gourmet brasserie lunch at Madame Brasserie, on the first level of the Eiffel Tower, with stunning views of Paris from our window tables. As twilight falls, embark on a Seine River cruise, to take in the city lights and iconic landmarks along the riverbanks. As we drive around the city today, enjoy the dazzling holiday decorations on the Champs-Élysées, Avenue Montaigne, and Place Vendôme. HLes Jardins du Marais Meals: B, L

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9 PARIS – STRASBOURG

After breakfast, check out of the hotel. Depart to the Marmottan Museum, where we'll learn about the masterpieces by Claude Monet and his friends, including Monet's "Impression at Sunrise" which gave the Impressionist movement its name. Enjoy traditional cuisine for lunch in a local restaurant.

Late-afternoon, take the high-speed train from Paris to Strasbourg. Check in at the hotel, then we'll stroll through the Christmas Market around the main square and walk to dinner in a nearby restaurant. Hotel de l'Europe Meals: B, L, D

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10 STRASBOURG

This morning, set out on foot for a guided tour of the Alsatian capital that will take you through the beautifully preserved district of “Petite France.” Then, visit the cathedral, famed for its beauty.

We'll visit the legendary wine cellars that lie beneath Strasbourg Hospital, a fascinating glimpse into history - once used to store wines gifted by patients in exchange for care. Today, a selection of Alsace's finest winemakers keep their most prestigious wines to age in the reputed cellars of the Hospices, that also house the world's oldest wine barrel, dating from 1472.

For lunch, enjoy regional cuisine in a typical Alsatian restaurant.

Afterwards, we'll enjoy the magical atmosphere of the numerous Christmas Markets located in several squares across the city. Dinner on your own. Hotel de l'Europe Meals: B, L

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11

STRASBOURG – COLMAR / EMBARK CANAL BARGE

After breakfast, check out of our hotel, and depart south along the Alsace wine route. We drive through picturesque villages and vineyards and visit the Château du Haut-Kœnigsbourg, a stunning medieval 12th century castle perched on a strategic hill in the Vosges mountains, overlooking the Alsace plain. The castle is an architectural marvel, featuring a mix of medieval and Renaissance styles.

We'll have an included lunch featuring local wine. We arrive in Colmar and visit one of the city's six Christmas Markets.

At 6:00 p.m. we embark the canal barge. We'll enjoy a welcome cocktail then dinner on board. Our lunches and dinners on board feature refined French cuisine and include a choice of a 1/4-liter carafe of wine or a bottle of mineral water, and an espresso coffee. Canal Barge MS Madeleine Meals: B, L, D

CANAL CRUISING COLMAR - KUNHEIM

We'll spend the morning cruising along the canal from Colmar to Kunheim, passing through fields and forest, and enjoy an Alsatian gingerbread tasting. Lunch on board. This afternoon, we'll visit Kaysersberg to view its Christmas display: Each year, the entire village is festooned with creatively designed Alsatian Christmas decorations. Next stop is Riquewihr, a charming medieval village nestled among the vineyards, with a traditional Christmas market. The brightly decorated, half-timbered homes add to the postcard-like setting of traditional Alsace. Wander the cobblestone streets and admire the marvelous decorations covering the facades and village monuments. Dinner on board the barge.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13

CANAL CRUISING KUNHEIM - COLMAR

Relax on board as we cruise to Colmar this morning. Lunch on board.

This afternoon, we'll explore the center of Colmar, beginning in Little Venice, where the Lauch River canals wind their way through the city, dotted with colorful, half-timbered homes. During the holidays, everything is decorated to the hilt. In the center of the holiday activity, we stop in at the Choco-Story chocolate museum, to warm up with a cup of delightful hot chocolate. Afterwards, spend some time strolling through the Christmas market enjoying the traditional wooden market stalls filled with Christmas decorations, artisan crafts and culinary specialties whose tempting, spicy notes waft through the market. Back on board the barge, we enjoy a festive gala dinner.

Canal Barge MS Madeleine Meals: B, L, D

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14

UNTERLINDEN MUSEUM - RETURN TO PARIS-CDG

Early breakfast and disembarkation at 9:00 a.m.

Before departing Colmar, we visit the exquisite Unterlinden Museum, celebrated for its extensive collection. A highlight is the 16th century Isenheim Altarpiece, renowned for its emotional depth and intricate craftsmanship within the context of Renaissance art.

We'll enjoy a celebratory Farewell Lunch and visit the Christmas Market of Obernai. Late afternoon, transfer to Strasbourg and travel to Paris-Charles de Gaulle Airport by highspeed train then check-in at the hotel for overnight. Oceania Roissy CDG Hotel Meals: B, L
